

HDF Boards

Woodeco HDF boards are an example of a material produced with respect for the environment. High-quality raw materials from only certified sources are used in its production. Manufactured from fine wood fibres, it is an ecological answer to the needs of the most demanding users, for whom durability, aesthetics of the furniture in use and technologically advanced execution are priorities.